

CBI decides to extend the suspension of the promotion of applications for licensing electronic payment companies

The Board of Directors of the Central Bank of Iraq decided in its meeting held on December 24, 2019, to extend the period of suspension of the promotion of applications for licensing electronic payment companies until December 31, 2020.

The Central Bank of Iraq
Media Office
January 19, 2020