

CBI concludes the e-clearing system course

The Central Bank of Iraq concluded a course entitled (electronic clearing system C-ACH) on February 20, 2020, organized by the Center for Banking Studies in this bank.

The course aimed to provide bank employees with comprehensive knowledge about the clearing system approved by the Central Bank of Iraq, and 31 trainees from government and private banks participated in the course.

The Central Bank of Iraq
Media Office
23/2/2020